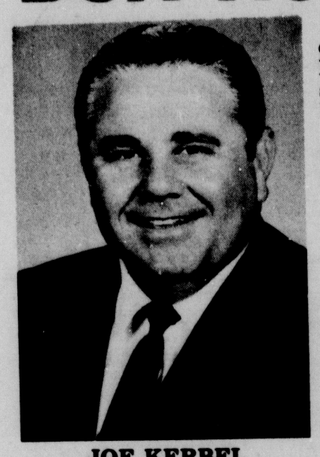
BOX ASSUMES FULL RESPONSIBILITY IN WT COACH CRISIS



JOE KERBEL

Board Chairman Cloyce K. Box took full responsibility for regent action which precipitated resignations of West Texas State University Head Football Coach Joe Kerbel and his entire staff early this week.

"My influence prevailed over other board members," Box declared. "I take full responsibility for removal of Kerbel."

Box said he thought the action was necessary for the good of the university.

"I would have done the same thing if Kerbel had been in the top 10," he asserted.

Box is one of WTSU's all-time football greats and is a twin brother of Boyce Box, Amarillo businessman and president of the Buffalo Club which raises funds for university athletics. Brother Boyce told newsmen he was "flabergasted" at the removal of Kerbel.

The board reached a decision not to renew Kerbel's contract at a regular meeting in Austin last Friday. The decision apparently was reached in executive session.

However, rumors had been rife for more than a month that Kerbel was doomed. Box flew into Amarillo for a part of a Buffalo basketball game several weeks ago and then visited the campus the following day.

Both Kerbel and the university issued statements Monday but the Box statement was most pointed of the three.

"In my own judgment a change was needed to give new life to the program," Box declared. "A new coach with a new program will help stimulate athletic interest. I think that is what is needed. I would have done the same thing if Kerbel had been in the top 10.

"My influence prevailed over the other board members. I take full responsibility for the removal of Kerbel. I thought it was the thing to do for the school.

"When you have the responsibility for looking after taxpayers' money, you can't divert too many funds to support football so you must try to make football pay its own way.

"Our program needed stimulation. A new coach with a new program will help get people in the stadium.

"It's a tough situation when you're dealing with the future of a football coach. It's hard to say you must move on to someone else but that is what happened."

Box was starting quarterback for the Buffaloes when Gene Mayfield was a sophomore. Mayfield was his backup man.

Box went on to play for the Detroit Lions for six years as a wide receiver.

"I just chased them most of the time," he declared.

Of his former teammate, the board chairman had this to say: "From what I know, Gene would be as outstanding in college as in high school"

The board voted not to renew the contracts of Kerbel and his assistants at the end of the present contractual period which would be Jan. 1, 1972 for Kerbel and July 15, 1971 for his assistants.

Kerbel tendered the resignations of himself and his staff effective Monday.

"This is a decision that has been made by an inexperienced board of regents with whom I have never even had the opportunity to confer to explain our present program or future plans," Kerbel asserted.

Statements issued by both Kerbel and the university administration were made public by Jack Donovan, information director for WTSU.

Following is a statement issued by Dr. James P. Cornette, WTSU president:

"The West Texas State University Board of Regents at its meeting in Austin on Friday, February 5, reached the decision that the contract of Mr. Joe Kerbel should not be renewed at the termination of the present contractual period, and that the same policy should obtain for the assistant football coaches. In Mr. Kerbel's case the date is January 1, 1972; for the assistant coaches the date is July 15, 1971.

"The members of the Board of Regents are mindful of and grateful for the great development of the WT athletic program under Mr. Kerbel's leadership, but feel that recent declining interest in the program, especially football, indicates that a change would promote the continued development of the program.

"On the next day I informed Mr. Kerbel of the Board's decision, and he said he would like to confer with his assistant coaches over the weekend and then would discuss the matter with me today. This morning Mr. Kerbel has informed me that he and his assistants have decided that in view of the total situation it would be best for everyone concerned, and especially for the continued and uninterrupted development of the WT athletic program, for him and his assistants to submit their resignations effective immediately rather than at the end of the present contractual period, and this they have done effective today, February 8, 1971. The Board of Regents has authorized that the salaries of Mr. Kerbel and his assistant football coaches should be continued until the end of their respective contractual periods, or until they accept other positions, whichever is earlier."

Kerbel issued the following statement on behalf of himself and his staff.

CLOYCE BOX

"Since the Board of Regents has come to this decision, my assistant coaches and I feel that we should resign immediately, and therefore we have submitted our

Delighted With One Of Our Own, Byars

Gene Mayfield, who went from outstanding quarterback at West Texas State University to greater distinction as a Texas high school coach, was named director of athletics and head football coach at his alma mater Wednesday.

Dr. James P. Cornette, university president, made the announcement at a news conference.

"His period of initial employment extends through Dec. 31, 1975 at an annual salary of $25,000," Dr. Cornette said.

Mayfield, 43, succeeds Joe Kerbel, 49, who along with his six assistant coaches, resigned Monday after the university's Board of Regents decided their contracts would not be renewed after the present contractual period.

The president said the new coach would appoint his own assistants.

Mayfield, coach at Odessa Permian the last six years, "accepted our invitation extended yesterday (Tuesday) to become the director of athletics and head football coach as soon as convenient with him and the Odessa school system," Dr. Cornette said.

"Both personally and officially I am very happy that Gene and his family are 'coming home' to West Texas State. He is one of the finest men I know and his coaching ability shows from the record," the president added.

Mayfield visited the West Texas State campus Tuesday.

Dr. Cornette told newsmen that the former coaching staff had pledged to give the new coach all available information on prospects to aid him in recruiting.

"I can't say we won't suffer some," Dr. Cornette said of recruiting. "Everything has been done from both sides to make this as little as possible. All scholarship agreements made by Coach Kerbel and his staff will be honored by the university."

Dr. Cornette said he agrees with Kerbel's statement of resignation in which the former coach said it will be necessary to en-

Redistricting Is To Be Aired

The sub-committee from the State House Committee on Legislative and Congressional Redistricting will meet Saturday at 10:00 a.m. in the City Commissioners Chamber in Amarillo to discuss the fate of the 18th Congressional District.

Persons who have information that will interest the committee may attend.

Rural areas in Texas stand to lose ten state representatives to the large cities.

The Texas Panhandle has areas showing gain, such as Randall and Deaf Smith counties, and areas with losses.

The hearing is the first of its kind to be held outside the Capitol. If the 18th Congressional hearing is successful other meetings will be set up throughout the state.

Eagles' District Hopes Still Live

Coach B. B. Kendrick's Canyon Eagles clung tenaciously to the silver thread of life in district play Tuesday night as they handed the Lobos from Levelland a stunning defeat on the maplewood at CHS.

The Eagles had lost to the Lobos in the first round of play.

This time they downed the South Plains cagers 76-63 and really didn't breathe hard in doing it.

Only the Demons and Tulia stand between the Eagles and a second round win. And after Tuesday night's performance the much heralded Demons seemed less ominous.

The Eagles went to the dressing room Tuesday night remembering that they played the Dumas team to a dead heat, 35-35, the first half in unfamiliar Demon Gym a few days ago.

The Eagles lost the Dumas game 76-67 but Coach Kendrick has grounds for believing that his charges might turn the tables on their home court. Anyway, the Demons will invade Eagle Gym at 8 o'clock Friday night for the Panhandle's AAA game of the season.

Canyon got off to a good start Tuesday night and had the Lobos down 14-8 by the end of the first quarter. They maintained a 40-32 lead at half time and led 57-45 by the end of the fourth.

Canyon put the ball up 66 times and hit 28 from the floor for 66 percent. They scored a like percentage from the free throw line with 20 out of 31.

Dorse Pennington had a hot hand from the outside pacing the Eagles with 22 points. Mike Podzemny contributed 17 and Willie Johnson 12.

The Eagles got into foul trouble early in the game committing 20 violations during the contest while the visitors were charged with

Gene Maps Plan

BY JOHN LAIRD
(The Odessa American)

The atmosphere was gloomy here Wednesday as Odessa School Superintendent Floid Manry announced Permian Coach Gene Mayfield's decision to accept the job of head coach and athletic director at West Texas State University.

"You can't help but be surrounded by a depressed atmosphere when you lose a man of Gene's caliber," Manry said.

"But by the same token we are extremely thankful for what Gene has done while at Permian and realizing this is his intended step up the ladder of his profession, we wish him the best of luck at Canyon."

According to Manry, Mayfield's resignation will be submitted to a Thursday night meeting of the school board, and, pending the board's approval, announced Friday.

For Mayfield, the coaching position is a new and challenging development with a unique twist. "I can't recall a head coach at a high school jumping up to the head coach's position at a college," he said Wednesday.

"Several offers have come my way in the past few years for an assistant's job in college, but I never thought this kind of thing would come up."

Mayfield wrote his name in the West Texas State athletic annals when he quarterbacked the 1950 Sun Bowl championship team and earned Little All-American honors.

"Every coach always dreams about going back to his alma mater, and coaching there," Mayfield explained. "But to jump into the head coach's position is a unique challenge that I am most concerned with right now. Coaching is a profession where one must be very careful not to become content without a challenge and I anticipate confronting this new task."

Mayfield revealed that he

Who Is Mayfield?

BY F.M. WHITE
(Odessa American Sports Editor)

Who is Gene Mayfield?

Permian Assistant Coach Gene McCanlies simply laughs and says "I've been with him 22 years and I don't know him."

You could list the honors and they would tell you little, other than the esteem in which other members of his profession hold this man.

President of the Texas High School Coaching Association in 1964; the only man to coach two high school all-star games (1963 and 1964) and won them both; coach of the year, 1965; coach of the year 1970; a guest lecturer before the American Football Coaches Association in New York City in 1964; and the man they all point to when the question is asked "Who is the finest football coach in Texas?"

A year ago in another similar situation, Mayfield was pondering offers from several Southwest Conference Schools and high schools throughout Texas. One school board had offered him a blank check to head their program. Texas A&M had offered $22,000 to be an assistant. Everyone wanted Gene Mayfield, but why?

The answer is very simple. Because Gene Mayfield is a winner. That afternoon a year ago he sat behind his desk thoughtfully smoking his pipe and watching the smoke as it rose and curled among the pictures that bring back memories of past triumphs. "I can't understand it," he said. "Some fellows seem to work and work and never win but me it just seems that I've been lucky and somehow things always seem to fall into place."

Gene Mayfield is a modest man. He is above all a quiet man, and a man who thinks.

Make no mistake about it, Mayfield is the man at the controls when he runs the show and the show itself is made in the image of the man.

A visit to his practice fields is an experience for even the most experienced football fan.

Players work in small groups with assistant coaches. Each action, each drill, every move has been programmed before time by Mayfield.

The pervading atmosphere is one of concentration. No one shouts. Not

Lions Schedule Conference Here

Lions Club members are preparing for the District 2-T1 Mid-Winter Conference, to be held at the Activities Center on the campus of West Texas State University Saturday and Sunday.

The meeting will be hosted by the Canyon Lions Club.

Main speaker for the meeting will be R. A. "Lip" Lipscomb, chairman of the board of Security National Bank in Lubbock.

Lipscomb will speak at a 12:15 luncheon Sunday in the East Cafeteria at WT.

He is administrator of the Long Range Planning Committee of the Lions Club International Board of Directors, and has been public relations director for the Texas Lions for the past seven years.

Following the luncheon meeting will be a cabinet meeting and a forum for local club officers in Room 202 of the Activities Center.

About 150 Lions and their wives from the Panhandle area are expected at the conference, according to Joe Gibson, president of the Canyon club.

On Saturday night, the organization has a reserved section at the basketball game between the WTSU Buffaloes and Houston Baptist University at 7:30 in the Amarillo Civic Center. Following the game will be a social at the Villa Inn in Amarillo.

While the Lions hold their Sunday afternoon sessions, their wives will be entertained with a discussion of floral designs and decorating with flowers by H. R. Fulton, Jr., Canyon florist. The ladies will also visit the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum and other places of interest.

Gibson said that registration would take place Saturday from 2 to 5:30 p.m. and Sunday from 9 a.m. to noon in the upstairs foyer of the

WTSU Budget To Be Aired In Austin

Board Chairman Cloyce K. Box, West Texas State University President James P. Cornette, and Financial Vice President Virgil Henson are to appear before a Senate Finance Committee in Austin today to defend a $15,645,885 biennial budget request.

The request includes $7,567,492 for the year beginning Sept. 1, 1971 and $8,078,392 for the following year.

The proposed budget calls for a salary increase of $10,000 from $25,000 to $35,000 annually for President Cornette.

Henson said there is some capital improvement included in the budget, a provision for 4 percent salary raises and the remaining increase for additional students.

The school is operating under a current budget of $5,540,978.

He said $243,000 is for renovation of the original portion of the museum.

"That is probably more than it cost to begin with," said Henson, "but when we are finished we will have a $700,000 building and we think it is worthwhile."

An additional $85,000 in the proposed budget is for renovation of the old swimming pool into temporary class rooms and the auditorium in the old administration building into two floors of permanent class rooms.

Also requested is money to supplement the instructional program in computer science.

"We just cannot finance the computer sciences laboratory experiences at the same rate as regular instructional courses," Henson said.

Henson said $25,000 for the nursing program for next year and $75,000 for the following year has been requested in the budget. Northwest Texas Hospital District has agreed to supplement this amount with $25,000 the first year and $75,000 for the next two years to get the program started.

"We're just asking the legislature to supplement this," Henson declared.

The Legislative Budget Board recommended a biennial budget of $12,382,135 and the governor $12,677,702.

Bob Burns Hired As Road Boss

Randall County commissioners Monday hired a road superintendent.

He is Robert "Bob" Burns, 49 years old, of 3619 Teckla in Amarillo. Burns will assume his duties next Monday on a salary of $700 a month.

A native of Michigan, Burns holds an engineering degree from Michigan Sate. He also attended Mississippi State during World War II under the Army Specialized Training Program. He is a World War II and Korean veteran of the Air Force.

Recently he has been in road construction work having been employed by Western Paving and Construction Company of Denver as an estimating engineer.

He moved to Amarillo in December of 1968 and has been employed by Culligan Soft Water Service. He and his wife have two children, Bill, 8 years old and Carrie, 6.

Commissioners voted to put automobiles back on the tax rolls. They were taken off the tax rolls several years ago.

Mrs. Audrey Bruse, tax assessor-collector, said there were 25,415 cars registered in the county last year and she estimates that each vehicle should produce, if collected, about $3 in revenue for the county.

Ray Bivins again offered a tract of property adjacent the South Amarillo Court house annex to the county at $17,500 without improvements or $18,500 with improvements.

The tract, 130 feet by 150 feet, now has a drive-in cafe on it. The court took no action.

In other business the court accepted a bid of $3,924.10 by the Xerox Company for supplies for the county clerk's office photostat machine.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

Khrushchev, in his heyday, gloatingly promised to bury us. He also assured us that our grandchildren would grow up under socialism—Russia's name for their dictatorship. The former dictator himself is now buried in obscurity, and we are not yet mired completely; but his second prophecy is swiftly being fulfilled.

All that is lacking to complete our socialist state is Nixon's guaranteed-income plan. This goes beyond the share-the-wealth schemes in either Russia or Red China. At least, in those countries everyone has to work. According to Nixon's plan, one only has to exist to be eligible for a paycheck.

Socialism aspires to place all citizens on the same social and economic levels. The only way that can be done is to reduce everyone to the lowest common denominator. One does not have to be very observing to be aware that the nonproductive element in society will keep that level miserably low.

American communists openly boast that they have infiltrated our educational system, all major church denominations, the big foundations, our defense plants, and all branches of our government.

They are, however, a bit vague about the FBI, which could explain their loathing for J. Edgar Hoover. And they admit they are not yet in control of the press, but they are working on it.

The stubborn small paper is their prime target. The OEO is furnishing $179,000 to Community Action, Inc., of Boone, N.C., to publish a weekly newspaper—distributed free—even to those who cannot read. Wasn't the OEO supposed to aid the hungry? When did the poor start eating newspapers? Is this the first step toward a controlled press that will tell the American people only what they are supposed to hear?

Before discounting the communist boast as idle talk or wishful thinking, check up a little. It is all too obvious that they are in our educational system, our foundations, and defense plants; but what about our churches?

Does your church support the World Council of Churches? A world church is one of the essential pillars of world government. The WCC is currently attempting to raise more than $200,000 to lend aid and comfort to our draft dodgers in Canada. It is obvious whose side the WCC is on.

Does your church sponsor Sensitivity Training, Encounter Sessions, or whatever name the local brainwashing program may parade under? Does it major on the social gospel, humanism, and racism, or does it preach Christ?

Jesus said, "I, if I be lifted up . . . will draw all men unto me" (John 12:32). The socialists put man on the cross to be the central figure in our worship—preferably a poor, depraved, black one. When man gets right with his Maker, his depravity disappears. He finds true riches, and his color is not important.

If any of our government agencies can claim communist immunity it is the FBI. The Supreme Court has almost destroyed our Constitution. The Poverty Program, HUD, and the AAA have brought grief to far more Americans than poverty, poor housing, or low farm prices ever did.

Every share-the-wealth program in history has culminated in nothing but poverty to share. Human nature naturally resists applied force. So—change human nature.

How?

Sensitivity Training!

What is Sensitivity Training? According to California State Senator John G. Schmitz, it is a process designed to destroy the "independence, self-confidence, and self-reliance of the individual—the foundations of both liberty and good government."

Sensitivity Training produces just the menticide needed to pave the way for a socialist state. And every S.T. group session digs America's grave a little deeper.

Texas Legislators To Get Bill On Hospital

A group of Canyon people will be in Austin Monday to discuss with legislators enabling legislation which would permit the formation of a hospital district in South Randall County.

Those who will make the trip had not been designated at mid-week.

The bill which will be presented was prepared by Dallas attorneys and will be discussed with Senator Max Sherman and Representative Tom Christian.

Proponents of the bill stress that it is only enabling legislation and would not in itself establish a hospital district. It would permit an election to determine whether a hospital district should be formed coinciding with Randall County Commissioners Precinct 3.

If the district is established, an election then probably would be held on a tax bond issue for construction and equipping a hospital — probably a 50-bed facility.

Mrs. Lois Hull, who headed a hospital planning committee, has been named chairman of a temporary hospital board. Other members of the board include Bill Sternenberg, O. H. Ralfs, Vernon Harmon, Mrs. Bobbie Henson, Floyd Tomlinson and Raymond Batenhorst. Harmon is vice president of the provisional board.

Six Canyon students, four teachers and five WTSU faculty members will be attending events today through Saturday at the Texas Music Educators Association clinic-convention being held in Houston.

Teddi Crager, Brad Garner, Doug Rittenberry, Nancy King, and Stephen Rhodes will perform in the All-State Band and Emily Davis will sing in the All-State Choir.

Teachers attending will include J. W. King, Jr., band director of Canyon High School; Gary Laramore, band director of Canyon Junior High School; Bill Lyon, choir director of Canyon High School; and Gene Murray, choir director of Canyon Junior High School.

West Texas State University faculty members on the program include David Ritter, clinic-demonstration on Caruso method of teaching brass; Emerson Haraden, try-out judge for French Horn, All-State Band chair placement; Dr. George Umberson, address to members of All-State Choir; Dr. Gary Garner, conductor of WTSU Symphonic Band, which will perform at band division luncheon, noon Friday; and Mr. Don Baird, who will perform and conduct a number on the WTSU Symphonic Band performance.

More than 8,000 people are expected to attend the event which will be held in the Sam Houston Coliseum. It will culminate months of auditions and tryouts by the more than half-a-million students in music programs throughout Texas.

Conducting the Texas All-State Symphonic Band at the Grand Concert Saturday night will be Frederick Fennel, conductor-in-residence of the University of Miami at Coral Gables, Florida.

The 130 members of the All-State Band are selected from a group of 260 finalists invited to Houston for auditions. The remaining 130 students are assigned seats in the All-State Concert Band.

Dr. Fennell was born in Cleveland, Ohio, and started his conducting training at the age of 17 at the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Michigan, where he was a scholarship student for three summers.

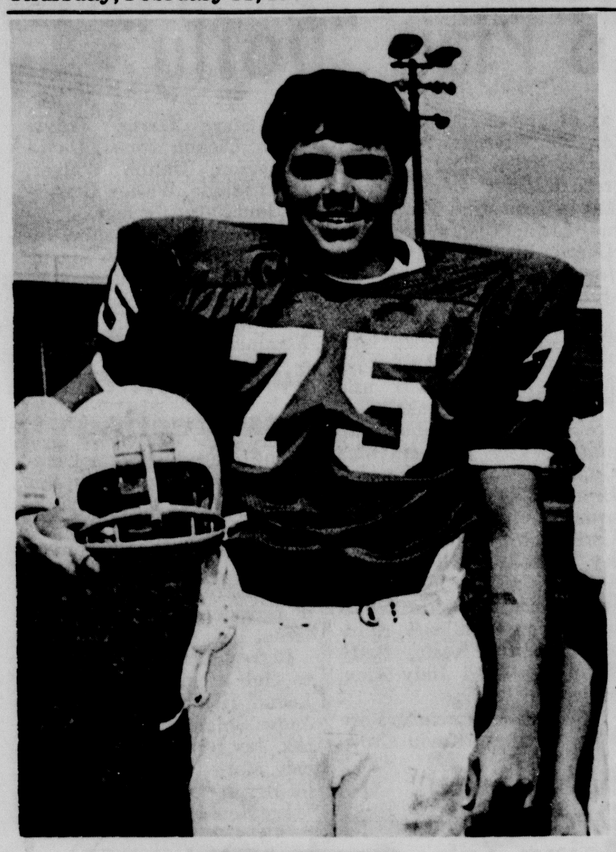
He also was a scholarship student at Eastman, where he received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees and won an international fellowship in conducting for study in the Mozarteum at Salzburg (1938). Dr. Fennell also holds an honorary Doctor of Music degree from Oklahoma City University, awarded in 1957.

The 240 members of the Texas All-State Choir will perform under the leadership of Weston Noble, chairman of the music department at Luther College, Decorah, Iowa.

Members of the All-State Choir, like of those of the All-State Orchestra, are selected in advance of the clinic-convention from finalists who have competed on the local and regional levels.

Weston Noble has been guest conductor of all-State Choirs and Bands throughout the nation. In addition to the demands of his own Luther College Choir and Band appearances, Mr. Noble has served as guest director in 31 states, Canada, and twice accepted the invitation to direct the Hawaiian Islands Music Festival and conducted some fifteen All-State choruses and seven All-State bands.

The band activities of the clinic-convention include noon concerts each day by outstanding university bands. The first concert to be performed will be at noon on Thursday by the University of Texas at Austin Symphonic Band, directed by Dr. William Moody. The second concert will be performed at the band luncheon on Friday by the West Texas State University Band, directed by Gary Garner. The concert at noon on Saturday will be performed by the Baylor University Band, directed by Gene Smith.



KELLY TINSLEY

Kelly Tinsley Signs With Texas Tech U.

Kelly Tinsley, Canyon High School football standout, signed a letter of intent Monday with Texas Tech.

Richard Bell, Tech recruiter, and Jim Carlen, Raider Coach, were on hand for the signing, which was held in Amarillo.

"I was greatly impressed with Coach Carlen, his staff, and the school," Tinsley said.

The big Eagle linesman was recruited to play defensive tackle.

"I wanted to play in the Southwest Conference," he noted.

Tinsley was named to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram all-state football team in January. He has been selected for all-district honors for the past two seasons and was voted lineman of the year for the area in AAA football.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tinsley of Canyon.

Light Weekend Snow Does Little Good, Little Damage

Results of the weekend snow were on the small side, both for farmers and ranchers and for traffic officers.

"I don't think we worked one accident during the whole spell, not even a fender bender that was on account of the weather," said Crosby Hammons, dispatcher in the Randall County Sheriff's office.

County agent John Brazzill said, speaking from the agricultural point of view, "Thirteen hundredths of an inch on as much dry land as we had is not really significant. We'll take moisture any time we can get it, but this was such an insignificant amount. We hope this is just the beginning of a spell when we'll get a lot more.

"With the low total moisture over the past year, a little bit like this is almost beyond evaluating. It will probably do some good, but you don't really know how much.

"What it did do was put a little blanket over the very weak small grain and wheat and that may have helped a plant that was weakened down go through the cold."

The Geography Department at West Texas State University reported that Canyon received .13 inch of moisture from the storm.

Gene. . . . .

would "like to take at least two coaches with me from the Permian staff but that would depend on their release from the school system and the board's choice as my successor. I certainly don't want to make a move that would hurt the Permian athletic program."

Although Mayfield mentioned no names, Leldon Hensley will probably be one of that two if Hensley isn't given Mayfield's job at Permian. Hensley played football at Sul Ross.

Dean Rudd or Jerry Behrens, two of his assistants at Permian, might be in the running for berths with Mayfield at WTSU. Rudd also played at Sul Ross and Behrens is, ironically, a Kerbel product from West Texas State.

At the moment it would seem probable that Gene McCanlies would make the trip to Canyon with Mayfield since he and the new Buff mentor have been together since Mayfield took his first head coaching job.

Mayfield's most difficult decision was compounded by leaving "the best high school in the state of Texas and I say that without reservation. My decision would have been obvious had I worked at another school, but leaving Permian High School was no easy choice to make."

The facilities offered Mayfield while at Permian spoiled the head coach. "Permian's athletic facilities are better than most colleges and, although West Texas State's football facilities did not over impress me, they are adequate to justify my move."

West Texas State's Board of Regents cited a decline in interest around the Panhandle area for the failure to renew the contract of Coach Joe Kerbel, but Mayfield anticipates no problem establishing a close rapport with the Canyon and Amarillo communities and their surrounding areas.

"Joe (Kerbel) was an extrovert and I am a quiet person," Mayfield said. "But I don't think that will keep me from working toward this goal. The players will be exposed to a different type of coaching but they want to play football and should be able to adapt to a new coaching style.

"I can name only one player on the WT team, so of course I am not informed on the team's potential for next year."

The timing of Mayfield's resignation hands the Ector County School board the tough assignment of finding a replacement on relatively late notice.

The abnormal timing also throws a monkey wrench into a chore that Mayfield has never encountered in his coaching career: recruiting.

"I couldn't have picked a worse time to join a college staff because the recruiting season is almost over and colleges have moved more into the 'signing season'. I don't know to whom West Texas State has talked concerning scholarship agreements, when the recruits are visiting the campus or what they have been told.

"I would be dishonest if I said this recruiting didn't scare me because it does very much. It's an entirely new concept, but I will just have to surround myself with people at the college that are willing to work at it."

Mayfield "seriously doubts" that he would have accepted the post as head Buffalo mentor if a conference affiliation had not come hand in hand with the package.

"The Missouri Valley Conference is a tough league but it certainly is prestigious and I'm looking forward to working in it," said Mayfield. "Joe was a good coach. His record proves it. That's what makes my job so tough.

"The improvement of the minor sports program I understand helped them into the conference.

"David Kent, WTSU tennis coach, is doing a great job with his team. I went to school with Dennis Walling, head basketball coach at WTSU, and although I've not seen him since he joined the WT staff, I know his program is booming also. The new intramural building is a nice addition to the West Texas athletic program. The football team works there in bad weather. The facilities for the intramural department are very adequate."

Red Cross Donates Equipment

A resuscitator-training manikin has been donated to the Canyon community by the Randall County Chapter of the Red Cross.

The manikin will be kept and cared for by the Canyon Fire Department and used by Captain Joe Rice of the department in his work as training officer.

Jerry LaGrone, chapter chairman, said, "This will be a real asset to Joe in all his training courses. In his teaching, he can show what he's talking about. 'One picture is worth a thousand words.' "

Captain Rice emphasized that the manikin is for use by all the community and that clubs, schools, youth groups, and other organizations could contact him to arrange for demonstrations in the use of resuscitation equipment.

The manikin, called a "Tammi," can be used for demonstrations and practice of closed chest heart massage as well as mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. Older manikins do not have the cardiac feature.

Captain Rice explained that members of the Fire Department have already received training in resuscitation techniques, but that future courses will incorporate the use of the new manikin.

SPRY Club Sets Meeting

Prints By Wagner To Be Hung During Hamlet

About 40 color prints of Photography by Ray Wagner in Amarillo will hang in the Formal Lounge of the Fine Arts Building during the run of "Hamlet," which is being presented in the Branding Iron Theatre Feb. 17-20.

The art-in-photography show includes work done by Wagner during the "Hamlet" rehearsals, during the recent Opera Workshop production of "Falstaff," some pictures from "TEXAS," some from the music department of Tascosa High School in Amarillo, some still lifes, portraits, night shots, and commercial photographs.

The photographer is trying for artistic impact, he said. One picture is of a Christmas tree, shot with a cross-star filter, which makes every light a star.

Many of the pictures have been shown in the national exhibits of the Professional Photographers of America, said Wagner, and some of the new ones will be submitted for hanging at their next show.

Tickets Office Opens Monday For Jeane Dixon's Appearance

Tickets to Jeane Dixon's personal appearance March 23 on the WTSU campus will be available Monday at the Fine Arts Building ticket office.

Tickets will be available only to faculty, students, and WTSU staff members with ID card Monday through Wednesday. Tickets still available will go on sale to the general public Thursday at $2 for adults and $1 for high school students and children.

The ticket box is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and from 10 a.m. til noon Saturday.

Advance inquiries for tickets have indicated that the demand for tickets will exceed the capacity, thus early reservations are strongly advised, according to Dr. Crannell Tolliver, chairman of the faculty special program committee.

Miss Dixon will speak on the topic "Looking Through The Spiritual Heart of America To the Future of the Universe".

The event is currently scheduled to be held at 8:15 in the Activities Center March 23.

Her new book, "Jeane Dixon — My Life and Prophecies" became a best seller within three weeks of its release.

Miss Dixon is both founder and president of Children To Children, Inc., a philanthropic organization.

Pay Bill Goes Into Mill

A bill which would raise the salary ceiling for Randall County employees is in the mill in Austin.

Representative Tom Christian is working on legislation which would allow the county to continue to give raises in the future. Randall County's population, based on the 1970 census, freezes the ceiling at $12,000 for elected officials, $8,100 for sheriff's deputies, and about $6,900 for other county employees, according to George Dowlen, criminal district attorney and county attorney.

The proposal would raise the possible maximums to $20,000 for elected officials and $12,600 for other employees.

Dowlen explained that current salaries for deputies working under sheriff L.S. "Slim" Johnston are $7,620 a year, which is within $40 a month of the present ceiling, as set by the state.

"The commissioners have no intention of raising anyone's salaries above the old maximums now," Dowlen explained, "but this is a means to enable them to give raises in the next ten years."

Veteran Minister Dies In Amarillo

Rev. J. Dewey Horton, 72 years old, father of Mrs. Troy Martin of Canyon, died Tuesday at his home in Amarillo.

Rev. Horton was the dean of Panhandle Baptist ministers.

Rev. Horton was an Oklahoma farm boy with little formal education when he decided to enter the ministry. Already married and with a family to support, he started to school.

Working, preaching, and cracking his books when he could he battled his way through high school in a day when a high school diploma was probably more of a rarity than a doctorate today.

Even then he wasn't satisfied. He wound up at Oklahoma Baptist University at Shawnee and it was there he completed his formal education.

He came to the Panhandle when it was young and fell in love with the boisterous, booming Plains country. He preached in a tent in bawdy Borger.

His travels would have made the journeys of St. Paul seem like a week end excursion in terms of distance.

His sermons were delivered under brush arbors in Oklahoma back country and under an airplane wing in the jungles of Brazil while an interpreter explained his message in an alien tongue.

Although his work took him at times halfway around the globe, his heart always called him back to Amarillo, the town he adopted in the early 1930's.

Rev. Horton gave spiritual guidance and comfort to many of the men who shaped the destiny of his beloved Texas Panhandle.

Nominally retired, Rev. Horton died of a heart attack at his desk, at work with the telephone receiver in his hand.

Rev. Horton never really retired at all. He preached a sermon Dec. 6 at Haywood Baptist Church in Haywood, Okla., commemorating his 50th anniversary in the ministry. It was only a few miles from where he had preached his first sermon at the age of 22, having never before even made a public announcement.

He was born in Miami, Okla., and spent his first years at Alderson, Bache, Krebs and Stuart, all small Oklahoma towns.

He was married to Miss Venna Davis in 1918 at McAlester.

He preached while he attended high school and then entered East Central State Teachers College at Ada, Okla., before going to Oklahoma Baptist University.

During his ministry in Oklahoma he served pastorates at Savanna, Scipio, Ansley, Stuart, Allen, Retrop and Reed.

He moved his family to Amarillo in 1932 and served as pastor of Pierce Street Baptist Church for nearly 16 years. The next seven years he worked with the Baptist General Convention of Texas and the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board. He was in the building department.

Possessing remarkable architectural ability, he drew plans for 3,496 church buildings in 18 states. Of this number 1,073 were in Texas. At the time of his death he was in the process of promoting a church building for a small community in Oklahoma.

Returning to the regular ministry in 1953, he organized a congregation and built a church at Farwell, serving as interim pastor there for 11 months.

He returned to Amarillo and organized the Hillcrest Baptist Church on Martin Road, presided over building a church building and served as its pastor for about 11 years.

He and Mrs. Horton were honored by the congregation in December.

Rev. Horton formally retired in 1965 but he was almost as busy as ever, doing pulpit supply, revival meetings and interim pastorates.

It was after his retirement and in spite of having suffered three heart attacks that he went to Brazil preaching at air strips and conducting revivals at Volta Redonda. He made three such trips to that South American country.

Since his formal retirement he had delivered 1,024 sermons and had been interim pastor at Hollywood, Summitt, Industrial City, and Hillcrest in Amarillo as well as at Fritch, Borger, Hereford, Hooker, Okla., Sublett, Kan., Liberal, Kan., and Calvary Baptist Church in Canyon.

Funeral services will be at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon in Amarillo First Baptist Church with Dr. Winfred Moore, pastor, officiating assisted by Rev. Chester O'Brien, associational superintendent of missions.

Burial will be in Llano Cemetery under direction of N.S. Griggs & Sons Funeral Home.

Survivors, other than the wife and Mrs. Martin, include two other daughters, Mrs. W.E. Wilkins of Amarillo and Mrs. Luron Jokisch of Arlington; a brother, Ralph of Bethany, Okla.; three sisters, Mrs. Stella Box of Oklahoma City, Mrs. Essie Henley of Tonkawa, Okla., and Mrs. Bertha Church of Los Angeles, Cal.; and seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Guy Madison, Carlile Finalize Movie Plans

Cameras will begin to roll May 1 somewhere in Texas, perhaps in the Panhandle, as the story of a modern day ranch manager, down on his luck, and a colt bred to run is put on film.

Guy Madison, The Wild Bill Hickok of television fame and movie veteran of 75 feature films, was in Canyon Monday night for a meeting with his co-star John Carlile.

The half million dollar (low budget) picture is set in modern times and concerns a Texas ranch manager (Carlile) who has invested a great deal of money in a new motel which has been bypassed four miles by a new superhighway.

The ranch is in danger of being lost altogether and the prize breeding stock must be sold. One colt in particular has all the ability and breeding to be a winner at the races.

Carlile has raised the colt, loves him, and decides to hide him from the buyers during the ranch sale. Carlile, however, is afraid to race the colt, because when the colt runs he gives his all and could split his lungs.

Madison convinces Carlile that the colt should run for the wealthiest purse in the racing world, the All-American Futurity. Everything rides on the outcome of the race.

The racing climax will be shot in scenic Ruidoso, New Mexico, home of the futurity.

The script was written by Lyn Jank of Rome and is titled "The Sale Is On."

"Lyn is a fine writer," Madison stated, "this is not the first story of hers that I've been excited about."

"Her characters are all mature, lifelike individuals who are living now," he continued, noting that she had also written two novels.

"Lyn has just recently written another beautiful story about Texas," the star pointed out. "We'll start working on it as soon as this one is wound up."

Miss Jank, who visited with Carliile here in October, will co-produce "The Sale Is On" with Madison under the name Guy-Lyn Productions.

Madison, who is currently looking as possible filming locations in the Lone Star State stated:

"I like all of Texas that I've seen. . . it's a beautiful state. "We'll be showing beautiful scenery, beautiful horses, the wide open spaces, and the Texas weather."

"People in foreign countries still visualize that there are Indians in Texas that shoot real bows and arrows," Madison laughed.

"The movie will be international in scope," he pointed out, saying that potential viewers are not only in the states, but in Japan, and the Far East."

"It will be a film the entire family can see and enjoy," Carlile inserted.

"We'll probably either film in the Amarillo or Dallas-Ft. Worth area," Madison stated, indicating that the final decision would be based on the scenery and the area of the state where financial backers reside.

"It boils down to this," Carlile stated, "Texas money will back a Texas film of Texas quarterhorses and Texas people."

Most of the crew will come from around the location chosen, however a production man, key camera man, and editor will be flown in from Hollywood.

"The cost of filming in Texas is much lower than it would be, say a hundred miles from Hollywood," Madison pointed out.

About Carlile, Madison said, "He has been a cowboy all his life and has lived everything in the picture. . . we want him just as he is."

"We are anxious to do the movie," Carlile said, "and do it right."

"There will be nothing non-professional about this film," Madison declared.

The special musical score will be written by William Glass, Jr., talented musician formerly of the United States, who now resides in Switzerland. Glass has arranged for the movie's financing through a Swiss bank.

Doug Raines of Amarillo will head the publicity and promotion for the film.

John Carlile and movie star Guy Madison discussed particulars of their upcoming film "The Sale Is On" in Carlile's Canyon home Monday night. Filming will begin May 1 at a location in Texas to be announced within the next few weeks.

large the present stadium facility if football's potential is to be reached here.

"There also must be more vigorous promotional support from the people of the Panhandle region," the WTSU president declared.

Dr. Cornette said he does not know when the new coach will arrive permanently on campus. "We'd like for him to get here today," the president declared.

Boyce Box, president of the Buffalo Club and brother of Board Chairman Cloyce Box, said neither he nor his organization has engaged in meddling in the coaching crisis.

"We solicit funds from interested fans for the university and turn it over to the university," he said. "We've never wanted to pay off a coach's contract and won't as long as I'm around."

He said his group has not solicited opinions from contributors and "had only one or two comments about it."

Duane Byars, president of the ex-students association, skirted comment on Kerbel's dismissal and expressed delight over Mayfield's decision.

"This is indeed a proud moment in our lives," Byars declared. "Gene will have 100 percent support from WT exes. Many have expressed themselves to me personally. This is indeed a great thing.

"We will feel a little closer having one of our own heading up this department."

Mayfield was graduated by West Texas State with a Bachelor of Science Degree in 1951 and received a Master of Education Degree from the university seven years later.

His wife, the former Mary Jean Hoover, also is a graduate of West Texas State.

Mayfield becomes the 16th head coach since the university hired its first football mentor in 1910 shortly after opening its doors as West Texas State Normal College.

His 17-year head coaching career at three high schools began in 1954 at Littlefield. In four seasons, his teams won 32 and lost 12, with five of the defeats coming in 1955, his second year in coaching.

He moved to Class AAAA Borger High in 1958 and in seven years his teams posted a 62-13 record and never lost more than two games a season.

The Bulldogs had a 13-1 mark in 1962 with the lone setback coming in the state championship game with San Antonio Brackenridge. The 1958, 1960 and 1961 teams lost in bi-district play and finished with 9-2 records.

After an 8-2 mark in his final season at Borger, he took his first Odessa Permian team to the state Class AAAA title in 1965. Permian won 13 of 14 games.

In 1968 and again this past season, Permian advanced to the state championship game only to lose to Austin Reagan on both occasions. Last fall Permian was 14-1 and was 11-4 in 1968.

Odessa won 72 of 82 games in six years under Mayfield and his 17-year record is 166 victories and 35 defeats.

Mayfield enrolled at West Texas State in 1945 and was an end on Coach W. A. (Gus) Miller's wartime team that won two and lost six.

He went into Military service the next September and served in Korea and Japan until March 15, 1948.

He returned to West Texas State that fall and was a forward passing understudy to Cloyce Box, who later became a great pass receiver for the Detroit Lions of the National Football League and now is chairman of the university's Board of Regents

During his sophomore year under Coach Frank Kimbrough, who died of a heart attack only last week, the Buffaloes were 6-5.

In 1949, when the Buffs were 5-4, Mayfield passed for 755 yards and 10 touchdowns. His 54 per cent completion average, coming on 54 receptions in 100 attempts, is one of the highest of records at West Texas State. That year he threw only three interceptions and it is the lowest total of any Buffalo passer attempting 100 or more passes a season.

Mayfield also was the fourth leading rusher in 1949, gaining 174 yards on 70 carries.

His senior year found him setting passing records that stood until the late Hank Washington started breaking them in 1965.

In 1950, Mayfield passed 153 times, completed 78 for 1,359 yards and 11 touchdowns. He had nine interceptions. He also rushed for 207 yards, giving him a total offense of 1,566 yards.

The Buffaloes climaxed a 9-1 season in 1950 by defeating Cincinnati 14-13 in the Sun Bowl at El Paso. It was West Texas State's first postseason bowl appearance and Mayfield threw a 69-yard pass to Bill Cross for the winning touchdown.

Although the records are incomplete, Mayfield is listed as the fourth best passer in West Texas State history with 2,114 yards on 132 completions.

After graduation, Mayfield stayed at the university as a graduate assistant coach in 1951 and the next year he was named backfield coach by Kimbrough. Mayfield went to Littlefield as an assistant coach in 1953.

Gene — born Clurel Eugene Mayfield at Quitaque on Jan. 31, 1928 — is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mayfield. His parents still live at Quitaque.

He and his wife have three children, Rhonne Elaine, 19, Steven Gene, 15, and Stan Lane, 10.

Mayfield is not the first coach to jump from a high school position directly to a major college head coaching job. Notably among those making a successful transition were Paul Brown and the late Blair Cherry.

Buffs Trample Seattle, 97-84

BY GREG DENSMORE
(Prairie staff)

It took three great individual efforts by Ralph Houston, Ray Golson and Steve Davidson to offset the fantastic playing of Seattle's Greg Williams as the Buffaloes of West Texas State claimed win number 14, 97-84, Monday before a crowd of 2,500 in the Amarillo Civic Center Coliseum.

Williams, a 6-7 sophomore, started the Chieftains rolling by hitting on five consecutive field goals and Seattle jumped to a 21-6 lead with 13 minutes left in the first half.

He finished the night hitting on 14 of 18 field goal attempts for a total of 36 points and pulled down 24 rebounds.

Then Davidson and Golson went to work and cut a 22-9 Seattle advantage to just one point (25-24) with 7:13 remaining in the opening period.

The two teams exchanged field goals before team captain Houston connected on a pair of free throws and a hook shot to give West Texas the lead 34-33.

Seattle jumped back into the lead on a free throw by Williams and a layup by Tom Giles before Golson again tied it and Houston gave the Buffs another lead on two successful free throws brought about when two technical fouls were called on the Chieftains.

Golson hit on a long jumper and Houston added a pair of charity tosses to give WTSU a lead which they never gave up.

Holding a 46-40 lead at the intermission, the Maroon Madness Buffs stretched their lead in the second half and held their biggest advantage of the night (92-78) with three minutes left in the contest.

The win left the Buffaloes with a 14-6 overall mark while Seattle dropped to a 9-10 record.

Saturday night the Buffs will battle Houston Baptist in the Civic Center in a rematch of the game won at Houston by the Buffaloes.

Houston earned high point honors for the Buffs with 25 points. Golson had 20, and Davidson finished with 18.

Other scorers for the Buffs were Brent Lake, eight; Jerry Christian, eight; Glen Fletcher, seven; Cleotis Reece; four; Ed Fitzgerald, four, Keith Batiste, three points.

Over $7,500 has been raised in Randall County for West Texas State University's Nance Ranch project, according to Jerry LaGrone, who is tabulating the funds. LaGrone is campaign chairman for the county. Assisting him is Mrs. Lou Ritter. About 25 fund-raisers are working locally.

The local committee hopes to reach $10,000.

Goal for the entire Panhandle is $100,000, of which $80,000 has already been given or pledged.

The project will be devoted to mother cow and feedlot technology research as well as teaching.

The 2,390-acre property is located 6 miles east of Canyon. It was donated to West Texas State University by Mrs. Lucille Nance Jones, widow of the late George Nance, and her husband, L.L. Jones.

resignations effective today, February 8, 1971. I have no apologies to make for my staff, my players, or for myself.

"This is a decision that has been made by an inexperienced Board of Regents with whom I have never even had the opportunity to confer to explain our present program or future plans.

"I will let the record speak for itself. The progress that was made in the football program during my tenure as Head Football Coach and the progress that has been made in the overall Athletic program since I became Athletic Director, August before last, will stand on its own feet.

"Attendance and season ticket sales should be greatly enhanced by West Texas State University playing for the Missouri Valley Conference championship this fall. However, future attendance growth will be dependant upon scheduling and contracting at least one 'outstanding attraction team' per season as a basis for season ticket sales. I am not referring to just any team. An outstanding example would be a team which has the crowd appeal in this area such as Texas A&M. To attract this kind of a team Buffalo Stadium needs to be expanded to at least 40,000 seats.

"The Buffaloes should have a great football team this fall. We have some of the top players in the country on the squad and we had a highly successful Junior College recruiting season. We also have the top freshman team in the school's history with some excellent prospects who will be a tremendous immediate help to the varsity. I wish this wonderful bunch of athletes the most successful of seasons, not only because they deserve it, but because you naturally wish that for your best personal friends. They are great athletes and great gentlemen and a great bunch of young men. I will miss each one of them tremendously.

"I would like to thank my many friends for their efforts in my behalf and for their support of this program. I further want to thank the student body and our cheerleaders because I feel we have a personal bond. I also would like to thank personally, Mr. Fred Wortham, Mr. Putt Powell, Mr. Troy Martin, Mr. Warren Hasse, Mr. Dick Risenhoover, and all of the other members of the press, radio, and TV who have been so kind to me.

"I want to convey my loving thanks to my players for their great performances and for just being what they are and lastly to my tremendous coaching staff who have been so loyal and so dedicated in their efforts to me and to West Texas State University."

Kerbel's staff is made up of Jack Harris, offensive line coach; Bobby Fox, defensive secondary coach; Jim Ostrander, offensive receiver coach; Joe Granato, defensive line coach; Burl Wood, linebacker coach; and Roy Winters, freshman coach.

On campus there was some talk of protesting the regents' actions but this had not materialized at midweek. Spokesman for a group of athletes said they had met but had decided not to pursue a protest.

"We decided such a move would be bad for us, the school and Coach Kerbel," the spokesman said.

Few people on the streets in Canyon accepted waning interest in football as a valid explanation for Kerbel's removal even though gate receipts were less than desired last fall.

Kerbel is generally conceded as having been a moving force in getting West Texas State into the Missouri Valley Conference and the record reflects that he is the winningest coach in the history of the school.

He came to West Texas State in 1960 after two of the dreariest years the Buffaloes had ever experienced — 20 outings and 18 losses.

He produced a winning team his first year and his 1962 team beat Ohio University 15-14 in the Sun Bowl. His team won the 1967 Junior Rose Bowl defeating San Fernando State 35-13.

Kerbel served as a Marine captain in World War II and began his coaching career at Bartlesville, Okla., where he was an assistant high school coach from 1947 to 1949.

He was at Cleveland, Okla., 1950-51 and in three years at Breckenridge, Tex., High School his teams won 30 games, lost four and tied two. His teams there were twice state champions.

He guided the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm to a 25-8 record in three years in Amarillo and then went to Texas Tech as an assistant in 1958. He coached the Red Raider offense until moving to West Texas State in 1960.

Kerbel is a 1947 graduate of the University of Oklahoma.

Coach Kerbel had not announced plans for the future at midweek.

even the players. You never hear an assistant coach raise his voice above conversational tones.

Off color language seems as out of place on a Mayfield practice session as it would in the halls of his Baptist faith. The players know what they are to do and listen attentively to their instructions.

Underlying the entire mosaic is a feeling of latent energy. You get the impression that something is about to explode.

And explode it does when Mayfield begins his fabled 10-man drill. Three blockers and three defenders face each other down a narrow corridor called shotgun alley. The backs wait behind the blockers and as the signal is called the collision of bodies is awesome in its fury. Gene Mayfield believes in rough, aggressive, emotional, winning football.

One week end his team is heralded for its outstanding defense. The next week end it is the ground game that steals the show and then as the opponent fixes his defense to stop what he has seen, suddenly the spirit of the former West Texas All-American quarterback is seen in an aerial game that is often overlooked but seldom fails.

Like the chameleon which changes its colors as it wanders through tropic vegetation the patterns of Mayfield's offense and defense are constantly in motion. This week it is the wishbone T, next week perhaps the slot I or even the wing T and in some situations the whole staggering load of the Mayfield playbook.

Defensively it's the same, as fascinating as a kaleidoscope, Mayfield is constantly changing. . . a five man front, a four man line, linebackers who crash through the line, linebackers who wait for the opposition. The only thing predictable about Gene Mayfield football is its ferocity. Mayfield loves a hitter.

Off the field Mayfield looks like anything but the stereotype football coach. There is nothing loud or verbose about Gene Mayfield. He's not the kind to slap you on the back or tell a joke.

His most faithful companion is himself as he sits for hours on end contemplating what needs to be done.

The average day for the Mayfield coaching staff begins and ends in darkness as scouting reports, practices, game plans and other matters consume the time.

Mayfield believes in being prepared.

19.

Levelland hit 19 free throws in 29 trips and made 33 field goals in 69 tries.

It was an exceptionally good night for Pennington for the time he played. He was charged with four fouls and saw only limited service the last half.

"Everyone played well," commented Coach Kendrick.

He praised sophomore Bill Moore. "He hit two baskets in the second half that we really needed," Kendrick declared.

Kendrick also complimented John Dodson for his work on the boards.

Coach Floyd Guinn's junior varsity won its game 59-49 with Billy Bob Taylor pouring in 16 points to pace the team. Eddie Jacobs scored 14 and James Henry Johnson 13.

The Friday night varsity game will be preceded at 6 o'clock by a junior varsity contest.

Tickets For "Mad World"

"It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World" will be shown at the Varsity Theatre tonight, Friday and Saturday at 7 p.m.

The showings, for the benefit of the athletic program at Canyon High School, are being sponsored by the Canyon Eagle Booster Club.

Tickets are still available at $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Jim Curtis and Lt. Col. John Childs, co-managers of the campaign, report that tickets are still available. They may be purchased from Jim Boyce, Johnny McBroom, A.J. Luquette, Wayne Wirt, Weldon Trice, Cooper's Market, West Texas State Bank, First National Bank, the Baptist Student Center, the Village Drive-In, Consumer's Fuel Association, the Mobile Service Stations, Curtis, and Col. Childs, They are also being sold by cheerleaders from the junior and senior high schools and members of the CHS Key Club.

Ticket sales for the family film have been very good, Col. Childs said.

Girl Eagles NipBobbies

Canyon's district champion girl Eagles breezed to a 48-37 exhibition victory over the Dimmitt Bobbies Monday night at the Civic Center in Amarillo.

The girls travel to Lamesa next Monday night for a bi-district tussle with Pecos at 7 o'clock in Lamesa High School gymnasium.

Leta Gill paced the girl Eagles Monday night with 26 points while Lynnette Slack scored 10. Marilyn Read scored 8 and Kris Tucker 4.

Sheila Payne and Julie Coffman were outstanding on Eagle defense.

"As far as our play was concerned, it was not bad but not as good as I would have liked to have seen," commented Coach Bobt Schneider.

The girls put the ball up 38 times and hit 21 from the field for 55 percent. They hit six out of eight from the free throw line for 75 percent in a game that was unusually free of fouls.

The Bobbies hit 15 out of 42 shots from the field for 36 percent and 7 out of 13 free throw tries for 54 percent.

The girl Eagles picked off 17 rebounds and allowed 17 turnovers which Coach Schneider described as "too many."

The girl Eagles will play Vega in a warmup game at 8:30 tonight in Canyon High School Gymnasium.

Day Care Center In Canyon

The training and research center of "Our Gang Schools," a newly formed day care center firm, is to be established at 605 W. 4th Ave. Remodeling of the building is being done by Donnie Ruthart, general contractor.

Executive offices will be in Amarillo at the Bank of the Southwest Building. "Our Gang" Schools plans to construct, supervise and license day care centers in the United States and Canada. Its name was adopted by arrangement with one of the original "Our Gang" children, Mrs. Alana Loshbough, who is a stockholder and serves as a consultant.

Officials said feasibility studies are being made in Albuquerque, Amarillo, Lubbock, Oklahoma City, and Wichita Falls to determine the needs of day care centers serving those areas. A sitter service is also being planned.

The Canyon center is being established so that the firm can work with West Texas State University in the areas of curriculum and personnel training.
